

Gabriela Potter

Gabriela Potter is a professional violinist, violist, and registered Suzuki violin instructor residing in Durham, North Carolina. Gabriela has registered Violin Books 1-10 and Early Childhood Education with the Suzuki Association of the Americas and is the Secretary of the North Carolina Suzuki Association.

Gabriela received her Bachelor of Music degree in Performance from East Carolina University in 2015, and has since been invited back to teach and perform with the Summer Chamber Music Institute as part of the Four Seasons Chamber Music Festival in residency at ECU. In addition to her teaching schedule with the Meredith College Community School of Music, High Strung Music School, and the Music Kids Program, she enjoys performing with the Long Bay Symphony Orchestra, the Tar River Symphony Orchestra, and other professional ensembles in the area.

Gabriela is thrilled to be joining her friends Celaya, Emma, and Santiago on stage, and is deeply honored by the opportunity to be a part of the Empath Concert Series.
